Commissioner for Patents

References of the IDS filed 11/13/09 have been considered except for those foreign references that do not comply as noted on the PTO 1449.

None of the references considered disclose or teach the invention as claimed. In particular, none of same relate to wine or other fermented alcoholic beverages that are stored in the manner as claimed to provide the oxygen permeation rate and storage after fermentation of four to thirty-six months which result in wine maturation equivalent to oak cask maturation..
